H. Charles, a resident of the City of Leduc, made a verbal presentation relative to concerns surrounding noisy vehicles. H. Charles suggested that signage be put up to educate vehicle owners.

Inspector D. Kendall, RCMP, advised that this concern is brought up every year about this time. Leduc Bylaw Enforcement ("Enforcement") has been issuing violation tickets and warnings in response to public concerns. The City of Leduc does not have any noise monitoring equipment, so Enforcement must decide whether or not the noise level is reasonable.

Beckett asked if Council could find the funds needed. Administration will look into having the not-for-profits added onto the account held by the City of Leduc rather than paid the $1,300.
